

Three Day Pleiadian Seminar With Christine Day

July 30, 31, August 1, 2010 9-5 Daily Hotel Hilton Airport
Minneapolis / St. Paul Minnesota USA

This is the first time this advanced level of work is being made available to the public. This means no pre-requirements are necessary to attend. It is being introduced by Christine Day at this time in conjunction with the Pleiadians. This seminar is designed to assist your birth into deeper levels of your awakening and to activate another level in your self-realization process.

You will have the direct experience of working with different dimensional spaces within a crystal vortex, and it is within these dimensional spaces that you will learn how to align with different dimensional aspects of yourself. These alignments to the dimensional spaces will allow you to reconnect back to aspects of your own personal power and then to be able to integrate these energies into your energetic field.

You will be working closely with the Pleiadians within the sacred geometric formations, and within the Stargate energies. As you work within these transformative spaces of light your personal relationship with the Pleiadians will deepen. It is here within these multi-dimensional spaces that you will be able to move into a birthing process of higher levels of your own light.

As your alignment to Self increases due to the Seminar processes, you will be able to open to and receive more levels of the Self Healing Prophecy. There will be channeled dialogue throughout the Seminar with many opportunities for your personal questions to be answered. The group setting allows an even larger expansion of energies to take place, so there will be unique personal awakening as well as powerful group experiences. This Seminar is open to anyone.
